HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

At Newbridge Energy / Blazers Fuels, we recognise our duties under current health and safety legislation. Our Managers and Supervisors are informed of their responsibilities to ensure that they take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety, health and welfare of those that are likely to be affected by the operation of our business.

We also recognise our duty to make regular assessment of the hazards and risks created in the course of our business. We also recognise our duty, so far as is reasonably practicable -

- to provide and maintain safe plant, equipment and systems of work, without risks to health
- to ensure the safe use, handling, storage, transport and use of articles and substances for both employees and other stakeholders
- to ensure that all employees are competent to do their work by providing information, instruction, training and supervision where necessary, taking account of any who do not have English as a first language
- to provide a safe workplace, without risks to health, with safe access and egress
- to provide and maintain a safe working environment, without risks to health, with adequate welfare arrangements
- to commit to the consultation and participation of workers on matters affecting their health and safety, with workers' representatives
- to commit to eliminate hazards and reduce occupational health and safety risks
- to commit to fulfil legal requirements and other requirements to which we may subscribe
- to commit to continuous improvement of our occupational health and safety management system, providing a framework for the setting of objectives
- to have access to competent advice
- to provide the resource required to make this Policy and our health and safety arrangements effective.

We also recognise :

- our duty to co-operate and work with other employers when we work at premises or sites under their control, in order to ensure the continued health and safety of all those at work, and
- our duty to co-operate and work with other employers and their workers, when their workers come onto our premises or sites to do work for us, so as to ensure the health and safety of everyone at work.

To help achieve our objectives and ensure our employees recognise their duties under health and safety legislation whilst at work, we will also inform them of their duty to take reasonable care for themselves and for others who might be affected by their activities. We achieve this by explaining their duties and setting out our company health and safety rules in an Employee Safety Handbook, which is made available to every worker employed by us. In support of this Policy, responsibilities have been assigned and more detailed arrangements have been prepared.
